

CONFIRMATION OF ADMISSION

Erasmus Mundus Master Course SUTROFOR – Sustainable Tropical Forestry

Sharif Ahmed Mukul

I am pleased to inform you that you have been admitted to the above mentioned two-year Erasmus Mundus Master Course. The course is part of the Erasmus Mundus (EM) programme initiated by the European Commission to enhance and promote top-level European higher education throughout the world.

The MSc course is developed and offered jointly by:

- University of Copenhagen, Denmark
- Dresden University of Technology, Germany
- AgroParis Tech University, Montpellier, France
- University of Padova, Italy
- Bangor University, United Kingdom

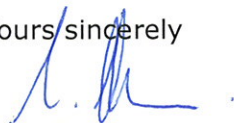

During your study programme you are required to study at two of the above mentioned SUTROFOR institutions.

You have been selected for an Erasmus Mundus Scholarship, which amounts to € 21,000.00 per year for two years. Your scholarship will be paid in instalments according to the SUTROFOR Student Scholarship Contract

You will receive a letter of admission along with practical information on your study start, accommodation, visa procedures, etc., directly from your first year host institution.

Welcome to the SUTROFOR Master Course!

Yours sincerely

Carsten Smith Olsen
SUTROFOR Director
